

Country Manager, China

Where we are now:

- Developed our own 'High-Impact Teaching' framework using researched best practices
- Our teachers are the best of British - experienced and recognized by the UK Ministry for Education
- Our program is endorsed by Cambridge and based on upon the famous Harper Collins programme
- We offer a cutting-edge virtual classroom for our students and teachers, making interactions simple
- We believe in training and continuously developing our employees, while also giving you flexibility

We believe in:

- Being solution-oriented and always thinking “what’s next?”
- Delivering top quality in everything we do
- Empowering people and developing a culture that motivates our people
- Technology – we use top systems internally to make our work more efficient and enjoyable

Why you will love us:

- Be a part of the global management team
- A competitive salary
- We reward your winnings and care for your welfare
- Report directly to the co-founder of ToolBox English
- We are in one of the fastest growing industries globally
- We are innovative and want to move forward fast – probably so do you!

The Adventure Ahead:

As Country Manager in China, you will be the leader of our startup business operations in the country. You will manage our operations teams in Shanghai and other cities in China. You will also develop industry connections and solid business relationships with potential partners and customers. Last but not least, you will be the strategic leader for China market – developing and implementing country-level strategies and executing the steps to grow our business and brand presence.

How you will contribute:

- Lead the business expansion in China and ensure smooth operations
- Grow, coach and manage the internal teams
- Apply strategic planning and align with global company strategy
- Determine, set and execute company objectives in China
- Monitor and support ongoing projects
- Implement procedures to maximize efficiency

Why we will love you:

- Solution-focused and entrepreneurial attitude
- Working experience in China and good understanding of the local market
- Highly self-motivated, resourceful and creative
- Experience in business operations or project management
- Passion for Education
- Experience in online or traditional Education is a plus
- Written and verbal fluency in English, Chinese language skills are a plus

Other information:

Location: Shanghai

Reports to: Co-Founder

Contact: For inquiries and to apply, please contact career@growhr.com. Mark your application with Country Manager, China

Want your application to be prioritized?

Send in your CV and a video to our Official WeChat account or career@growhr.com, answering following questions in 2-3 minutes and receive feedback within 24 hours:

- Which qualities do you have that can be valuable for this role?
- Why are you interested in this job and/or company?
- Which challenges do you see in this role?

